

Rosemont College Men's Basketball

Centenary (11-12, 6-4 CSAC) vs. Rosemont (11-12, 6-4 CSAC)
Wednesday, Feb. 13 • 8:00 p.m. • Rosemont, Pa. • Alumnae Hall

Game Notes

- Fresh off an important win against previously undefeated in conference play Cairn, Rosemont returns home to Alumnae Hall for its final home regular season contest- a critical game against Centenary that will decide playoff positioning.
- The Ravens will honor their three seniors- Alex Epps-Ortiz, Jalil Myers and Jacob Simonson- in pre-game ceremonies before tonight's contest. The trio have been instrumental in the front court and played large roles in Rosemont's return to the Colonial States Athletic Conference playoffs.
- Junior small forward Keith Blassingale was the third Rosemont player this season to be named CSAC's Player of the Week on Monday. Blassingale averaged 23 points and six rebounds for the Ravens. Had 25 points on 6-for-11 shooting (including 5-for-7 from the three point line) in a win over Cairn helped clinched a CSAC Playoff berth.
- The Ravens 9.5 steals per game average is good for 30th in the nationwide NCAA rankings heading into play on Wednesday out of 416 Division III teams. They are 31st in the country in turnovers forced with 17.6 per game.
- The Cyclones are coming off a 92-82 win over Bryn Athyn on Saturday that clinched Centenary a playoff spot in the CSAC Tournament. Chris LaBelle is the leading scorer for Centenary at 18.9 points per game.
