

Rosemont College Men's Basketball

Bryn Athyn (4-10, 2-0 CSAC) vs. Rosemont (4-8, 0-1 CSAC)
Tuesday, January 8 • 8:00 p.m. • Rosemont, Pa. • Alumnae Hall

First meeting between two schools in history

Game Notes

- In their first conference game in 38 days, the Ravens return to league play at Alumnae Hall on Tuesday night to face Bryn Athyn for the first time as members of the Colonial States Athletic Conference. In fact, it is the first time the two schools are meeting since the Ravens installed a men's basketball program during the 2008-09 season.
- Rosemont is coming off a 101-84 loss to Ursinus last Thursday in the first game of 2019. It capped off a 20 day stretch where the Ravens have played two Division I teams in Lafayette and Hofstra (in an exhibition), a tournament at Albright College that saw the Ravens reach the finals and Ursinus all on the road.
- The Ravens have only played one game at Alumnae Hall since the season began on Nov. 8- a 87-73 win over Misericordia on Dec. 16. The Ravens are only one of five teams nationally at the Division III level to have only one home game to this point in the year. Only nine NCAA teams across all divisions (3 at Division II, one at Division I) have one home game.
- The Lions are coming in off a 77-57 win over Clarks Summit on Saturday in their second CSAC contest. They are lead by Lamarr Crenshaw (16.7 ppg), Larry Stevenson (15.6) and Rahim Washington (13.8).
